LATONIA LONG SHOTS SCORE

EELL HORSE THE ONLY WINNING FAVORITE OF DAY AT KENTUCKY COURSE.

Swannanoa Finishes Distant Third in Race Won by Curlicue and in Which There Is Much Interference-Bell Horse in Winning Form.

cincinnati, O.; October 21.—Aside from the handicap which served as a feature, today's card was an ordinary one and four of the races resulted in victories by extremely long-priced starters. These winners were wholly overlooked in the betting, except by their immediate connections. The handicap which Bell Horse accounted for first money, was the only respite that favorite players had from utter rout. The Bradley candidate ran in his best form and, leading his opposition throughout, finished with uplenty to spare. Joe Morris and Colonel Holloway took the minor portions of the purse. Colonel Holloway's showing was an especially good one, in view of his recent trying effort in the Kentucky Endurance Stakes, and he will have numerous supporters in the Latonia Endurance Handleap to be run during the latter part of the meeting here.

The biggest upset came with the running of the fifth race, when J. H. Barr, a recent arrival from the half-mile tracks, cantered away with the purse after showing a sensational flight of speed in the last furloag. Another long shot, imprudent, took second place, and Toy Boy headed the others, with Regon, the favorite, far back.

Swannanoa, which won in easy fashion on the occasion of her last previous appearance, was considered the best betting proposition of the afternooh, but she finished a distant third to turlicue and impression. The winner interfered sharply with all the starters on the first turn and carried impression, claimed a foul, but the judges did not think the interference sufficient to justify a disqualification.

The closing dash went to Carlton Club, on which wandusen had his first mount in almost two years. The horse was decidedly best, for he was almost thrown in the first quarter, and had to go around the others most of the way. John Louis, which in trace, but was not good enough. Dick Baker, the favorite, was third.

Threatening weather and an ordinary card contributed towards a decreased attendance. The speculation amounted to about $70,000.

The track dried out con days by the judges. Starter Cassidy suspended fain and Buxton for six days each for disobedience at the post.

Ike Striker arrived during the day with eight horses from Pittsburgh, where he received $30 as his share of $700 won by his borses in purses, Other arrivals from the same point included L. Fitzgerald and M. Barton.

Fred W. Gerhardy was an arrival today in the interest of the Norfolk meeting. He distributed stake blanks for the six events to be run at the Jamestown track November 13-30.

More encouraging advices were received today from Charleston, S. C. It is now certain that a meeting of at least sixty days' duration will be held there the coming winter. It is unlikely that the opening will take place prior to January 20 and arrangements, it is said, are under way by the promotors to open at least fifteen stake events.

R. F. Carman has announced his intention to race at Juarez. Mex., the coming winter and will take a formidable band there, including seven coming two-year-olds.

The two-horse combination, consisting of U Steppa and Guide Post, paid $429.40 for $2. No one picked the three-horse combination and it went to the field backers, each taking down $785.

Safali's racing career was probably terminated today, due to an injury received by stepping on some sharp instrument which almost severed his right hind leg.

F. D. Weir is arranging to ship his horses to Juarez.

Word was received this afternoon of the arrival

F. D. Weir is arranging to ship his horses to Juarez.

Word was received this afternoon of the arrival at Juarez of the horses owned by W. E. Applegate and also those of R. J. Mackenzle.

Hawthern is again rounding into good form and was cantered a sharp half mile this afternoon.

J. B. Respess sold today to Archie Zimmer, for T. D. Sullivan, two yearlings that have shown good trials. Mr. Respess also arranged with trainer Zimmer for the services of jockey Lottus until the first of the year, when his contract will expire, Lottus will go with the Zimmer consignisent to Juarez at the close of the racing here.

L. P. Doerhoefer has had Baron De Kalb and Karm gelded and turned out.

The two-year-olds Richwood, Richard Langdon and Denmark, owned by J. B. Respess, have also been gelded and will not be raced until next season. The following were among the best work-outs this morning:

LUCIEN LYNE COMING FOR VISIT.

Lexington, Ky., October 21.—Lucien Lyne, the famous jockey, who for the past four years has been riding on the racetracks in Belgium with great success, is expected to arrive here within the next few weeks for a visit to his father, S. C. Lyne, and family, who live near this city. This will be lockey Lyne's first visit to America since he went to Belgium. This year he stands at the head of the winning jockeys of Belgium, having ridden the winner of the Belgium Derby and other big races. This will be Lyne's second visit home during the six years he has ridden horses abroad. He was here for a short visit at Christmas four years ago, after he had ridden in England for two years. Lyne is twenty-eight years old, and has ridden race horses since he was fitteen years of age.

GOOD CROWD AT MINERAL SPRINGS

with No Untoward Happenings.

Optimism was prevalent at the Mineral Springs track yesterday. Balmy weather was one factor. A really encouraging attendance was another, the crowd being probably only second numerically to that of Saturday. The racing listelf was clean cut and marked by several rousing fluishes. None of the threatened things such as raiding troops and abandomment of racing pictured in a portion of the loss reliable criterion, it is likely that there will be constantly increasing patronage.

The finish of the first race of the day, a dash of three-quarters of a mile, presented the pecularity that the first horses were also the first four on the program, and so carried the numbers from one to four. On paper, the race appeared a racing certainty for Ursula Emma, and she won secondingly, but not without some lively shaking up midway of the part third. Gross was on was second and content third. Gross was on was second and content third. Gross was on was second and content third. Gross was on the winner and secred his first success at the track.

With Mite, Field Flower and Icicle scratched, nine two-year-old filles contested the second race. It was marked by an exciting finish in which nothing but superior horse-manship on Musgrave's part landed Ella Grane winner by a neck better than Brightstone, with Kitty W. a good third. Spirella was well liked for this race, but was jumped on apin of three-girable, but for three-year-olds and over, did not present much in the way of demonstrated good public form, but resulted in a good contest in which the track record was nearly the when the Cesarion gelding, Usepa, led Modesto Boy home in 1:01%, Elwyn finishing a respectable third under Musgrave's guidance.

Another scurry at five-eighths followed. Apparently in secned a close thing between Dominica and Acobite. But the last city of the reason that Jacobite propped as the barrier flew up and obstinately refused to run and so, along with Dipper, was left at the post. Dominica and second made the part of the secon a decision will be given some time thereafter, perhaps not until the meeting is over.

Hereafter Tuesdays and Fridays are to be "ladies' days," admission being free to women on those days. Jockey A. Hanover has arrived from Pittsburg and that former star of the saddle, Dave Nicol, is expected at the track shortly, coming here from Salt Lake City.

Considerable was expected of Live Wire in the last race, but, after going well for over a half, he fell lame and dropped out of contention.

HEDGE RUNS DISAPPOINTINGLY.

Held at Prohibitive Odds and Fails to Place in Race

Baltimore, Md., October 21.—It was ladies' day at Laurel and a tremendous gathering turned out to witness the sport. It was an ideal day for racing and with the track in splendid condition keen con tests were seen. Briar Path, Irish Kid and Oak hurst won for the backers of favorites, but the defeat of Hedge was a stunner for those who base their calculations on form. In her previous effort on Wednesday last, Hedge overcame a great deal of early interference and ran a mile in 1:38%. This made her an odds-on favorite today and the layers were forced to rub the 2 to 5 that was quoted about her in the early betting. Hedge again suffered some interference today, but no more than in her previous start. She moved up to the leaders on the backstretch and was a keen factor to the stretch turn, where she faltered and the finish found her unplaced.

The other races furnished interesting contests, the best horse in each instance winning. Teahan piloted the winners of the last two races and had Miss Edita escaped being cut down in the first race, he might have made it three firsts. The Schorr filly came out of her race badly crippled. She was jumped on and cut down, on both legs, but the off leg was the one that suffered the most injury. There was a deep cash just above the hock. The filly will be retired until next spring, as it is out of the question trying to bring her back to the races for a couple of months at least.

Briar Path won the opening race for George W. Langdon and the victory was a popular one. Mr. Briar Path won the opening race for George W. Langdon celebrated Briar Path's victory by purchasing the promising two-year-old. His Majesty, from David Gideon. His Majesty is by the Futurity winner His Highness, out of the Futurity winner Butterflies. He is a colt of much promise and will probably develop into a good racer.

Barney Schreiber recently consummated a big deal with R. J. Mackenzle in which a dozen yearlings by Joe Carey figured. They were: Brown colt, out of Blandura; chestnut colt, out of Febecca Ban

GOOD STABLES FOR JAMESTOWN RACING.

Norfolk, Va., October 21.—Six stakes, with values ranging from $800 to $1,500, which will be decided at Norfolk during the fall meeting of the Jamestown Jockey Club, November 13-30, will close on Saturday. October 26. The stakes are the Monticello, $1,500, a handicap for horses of all ages, distance one mile; the Exchange, value $1,000, handicap for all ages at one mile and an eighth; The Thanksgiving, $1,000, selling stakes, for three-year-olds and over at one mile and an eighth; Lynniaven, a $1,000 selling stakes, for fall ages; the Merchants', an $800 selling stakes for all ages; the Merchants', an $800 selling stakes for all ages at three-quarters of a mile, and the Fairfax Hotel, $800, a handicap for three-year-olds at three-quarters of a mile.

Entries for these stakes may be made to Bob Levy, general manager of the Jamestown Jockey Club, who is in Norfolk at the Monticello, or to Fred Gerbardy, who will represent the club at Latonia. So great is the pressure of applications for stall room that Mr. Levy declares he will be compelled to favor those who make nominations in stakes.

Applications for more than 600 stalls are in already. The management has built several hundred new stalls and is about to begin the construction of more.

The purses this fall will be better than heredowed.

new stalls and is about to begin the construction of more.

The purses this fall will be better than heretofore. None will have a smaller value than $300 and, in addition to stakes, there will be a handicap each afternoon worth from $400 to $600.

Among the applicants for stabling are such well-known American and Canadian sportsmen as August Belmont, Harry Payne Whitney, Richard T. Wilson, H. C. Hallenbeck, Thomas Clay McDowell, Harry K. Knapp, Francis R. Hitchcock, Thomas F. Ryan, Robert Davies, William Garth, Capt. E. B. Cassatt, Capt. P. M. Walker, and scores of others. The officials at Norfolk this fall will include Joseph A. Murphy and Francis J. Bryan as stewards, Edward Cole and Fred W. Gerhardy as placing judges, A. B. Dade starter, Harry White, paddock judge, Herman Conkling, clerk of the scales, and Joseph McLeanan, racing secretary and clerk of the course.

George Miller is track superintendent and already he has the course in fine condition for training. Mr. Miller has been at work since the beginning of August. Mr. Miller promises that the course will be faster than it was last fall. Besides superintending the construction of the new stalls, Mr. Miller has foubled the size of the betting ring and floored the same.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

B. R. Bradley recently sold to William Hurley the two-year-old colt Baldoyle and two yearlings, one by Cunard—Picola and another by Cunard— Bandele.

Foxy Mary and Markie M., which are in retirement this season, are doing so well that J. T. Weaver has decided to attempt to race them again

Harry Payne Whitney is reported to have pur-chased a piece of land near the Jamestown track on which to build a stable for the winter training of home of hts horses.

E. Lutz has arrived at Latonia from Pittsburgh with seven horses, including Messenger Boy. He hopes to get the four-mile winner to the races be-fore the Latonia meeting ends.

fore the Latonia meeting ends.

The Piping Rock meeting closed Saturday with an attendance of 5,000. C. R. Fleischmann's George Eno was returned winner of the Harbor Hill Steeple-chase, with Jingo second and Utmost third.

Deputy Attorney-General James E. McCullough upon returning to Indianapolis from the Mineral Springs track, on Saturday, is quoted as saying that he could find no public bookmaking at the course.

At the Longchamps race course in France, Sunday, the Prix de la Foret, 30,000 francs, distance 1,500 meters, was won by H. B. Duryea's Blarney, which is manifestly one of the best two-year-olds of the season in France.

Loupe Ezekial, who has attended thirty fall meetings at Latonia, was the first one out there yester day. "Loupe' declared that he believed Col. Alex Labold and himself are about the only original ones left.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Went to post at 3:06. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. CURLICUE obtained a good lead after causing a jam on the first turn, interfered sharply with IM-PRESSION on the stretch turn, then stood a hard drive gamely. IMPRESSION ran prominently all the way and would have won with a clear course. SWANNANOA was knocked back on the first turn, but ran poorly. WINNING WITCH tired in the last quarter after showing speed. ELWAH ran poorly all the way. Overweights—Impression, 2 pounds; Winning Witch, 4; Elwah, 22.
